II. The schedule of compensation and benefits authorized herein shall continue from the previous authorization and changed as described below.

III. For purposes of this authorization, the term “covered employee” shall mean those classifications of employees enumerated in Paragraph I of this document, unless otherwise specifically included or excluded in the text of the authorization section. The term “Court” shall mean the Superior Court of California, County of San Francisco. The term “City” shall mean the City and County of San Francisco.

IV. If this authorization does not address a topic concerning terms and conditions of employment, the Court will follow the Local 21 contract.

V. Compensation and Additional Economic Benefits for Covered Employees.

A. WORK SCHEDULES

A normal work schedule is a tour of duty of forty (40) hours per week, usually worked in eight-hour (8) increments within a nine-hour (9) period, during five consecutive days. An alternative work schedule may be established by mutual agreement. A part-time work schedule is a tour of duty less than forty (40) hours per week. Salaries for part-time services shall be calculated upon the compensation for normal schedules proportionate to the hours actually worked. This paragraph does not constitute a guarantee of 40 hours per week, or any other specific level of hours.

B. HOLIDAYS

1. Floating Holidays

a. In addition to those days designated by state statute as Court holidays, covered employees shall receive six (6) floating holidays per fiscal year effective each July 1st, provided that this receipt does not result in an accumulation of more than six days. Covered employees shall also receive three (3) floating holidays on a one-time-basis to be used by September 30, 2025. These days are to be taken on days selected by the employee subject to the approval and sole discretion of the Court, prior to the end of the applicable fiscal year. These days are not compensable upon separation. Part-time employees who are not regularly scheduled but are employed on an as needed irregular intermittent or other irregular basis are ineligible for the additional days.

b. Permanent employees and temporary employees whose appointments are for longer than a 6-month duration will be credited with floating holidays from the beginning of employment. Regularly scheduled part time employees will be credited with floating holidays on a pro rata basis. Employees who are not regularly scheduled, but are employed on an as-needed, irregular, intermittent, or other irregular basis are ineligible for the additional days.

2. Part-time Employees Eligible for Holidays

a. Part-time employees, who regularly work a minimum of twenty (20) hours in a biweekly pay period, shall be entitled to holiday pay on a proportionate basis to the full-time work week of forty (40) hours.

b. Therefore, part-time employees, as defined in the immediately preceding paragraph, shall receive a holiday based upon the ratio of 1/10 of the total hours regularly worked in a biweekly pay period. Holiday time off shall be determined by calculating 1/10 of the hours worked by the part-time employee in the biweekly pay period immediately preceding the pay period in which the holiday falls. The computation of holiday time off shall be rounded to the nearest hour.

3. The proportionate amount of holiday time shall be taken in the same fiscal year in which the holiday falls. Holiday time off shall be taken at a time mutually agreeable to the employee and the Court Executive Officer or his/her designee. Holiday Compensation for Time Worked

Employees who are covered by this authorization, who are required by the Court to work on a State holiday, excepting Fridays observed as holidays in lieu of holidays falling on a Saturday, shall be granted time off equivalent to the time worked at the rate of one and one-half times for work on the holiday. Time off in lieu shall be scheduled at the discretion of the Court.

4. Holiday Pay for Employees Laid Off

An employee covered by this section, who is laid off at the close of business the day before a holiday, who has worked not less than five previous consecutive work days, shall be paid for the holiday.

C. VACATION

1. Definitions. "Continuous service" for vacation allowance purposes means paid service pursuant to a regular work schedule that is not interrupted by a breach in paid service.

2. Award and Accrual of Vacation. An employee shall be awarded the employee's vacation allowance on the first day of the pay period following the pay period in which the allowance is accrued.

Starting with the five-year anniversary date of continuous service, an employee earns .0577 hours of vacation credit each pay period for each hour of paid time in the pay period, up to a maximum of 120 hours per year.

- d. At the end of ten (10) years of continuous service, an employee shall be awarded a one-time vacation allowance computed at the rate of .01924 of an hour for each hour of paid service in the preceding year, except that the amount of the vacation allowance shall not exceed forty (40) hours.
- e. At the end of fifteen (15) years of continuous service, an employee shall be awarded a one-time vacation allowance computed at the rate of .01924 of an hour for each hour of paid service in the preceding year except that the amount of the vacation allowance shall not exceed forty (40) hours. - g. The maximum number of vacation hours an employee may accrue consists of two hundred and forty (240) hours carried forward from prior years plus the employee's maximum vacation entitlement, which is based on the number of years of service. The maximum number of vacation hours that an employee may accrue is as follows:

Years of Continuous Service	Maximum Accrual
1 through 5 years	320 hours
More than 5 through 15 years	360 hours
More than 15 years	400 hours

- i. If, in a pay period, the hours earned cause the balance to reach the maximum allowable, the employee will stop earning hours until he/she reduces the balance by using hours.

D. SICK LEAVE

1. Definitions: "Continuous service" for sick leave allowance purposes means paid service pursuant to a regular work schedule that is not interrupted by a breach in paid service.

2. Award and Accrual of Sick Leave. Beginning with the first full pay period after the effective date of this ordinance, an employee shall be awarded the employee's sick leave allowance on the first day of the pay period following the pay period in which the allowance is accrued.

- a. Any full time covered employee shall be allowed to transfer leave credits from sick leave to vacation or vice versa under the conditions described in this section. No other leave balances may be used. The transfer may not exceed one complete block of eighty (80) hours per fiscal year per employee. F. WELLNESS PROGRAM

Any full time covered employee, hired prior to July 1, 2011, leaving the employment of the Court upon service or disability retirement from the San Francisco Employees Retirement System may receive payment for a portion of sick leave earned but unused at the time of separation. The amount of this payment shall be equal to two and one half percent (2½%) of the employee's sick leave balance earned but unused at the time of separation times the number of whole years of continuous employment times the employee's hourly salary rate, exclusive of premiums or supplements, at the time of separation. Vested sick leave hours, previously earned while employed by the City and County of San Francisco under their Civil Service Rules, shall not be included in this computation. This wellness incentive bonus shall not be considered as part of an employee's compensation for the purpose of computing retirement benefits.

G. COMPENSATORY TIME OFF

1. Employees in the classes covered by this authorization, except for 315C Civil Cast Settlement Specialist, are all considered to be occupying executive, administrative, or professional positions that are exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act by the nature of their assignments and therefore are not entitled to be paid for overtime worked. Instead, covered employees in the above classifications shall receive compensatory time off for hours worked in excess of forty per week.

Compensatory time shall be earned at a rate of time and one-half. In order to be eligible, the time worked in excess of forty hours must be pre-approved by the employee's supervisor. For purposes of this section, legal holidays provided for in the Government Code and jury duty shall be considered time worked.

2. No employee shall maintain a balance of Compensatory Time Off (CTO) exceeding 120 hours. It is the responsibility of the employee to track and monitor his/her own balance of CTO to insure that this ceiling not be exceeded. The Court shall not unreasonably deny a CTO request pursuant to this paragraph. CTO will be taken in full work-day blocks unless an alternative is mutually agreed upon between the supervisor and the employee. Scheduling shall be by mutual agreement of the supervisor and the employee.

3. CTO may only be taken in paid time off and cannot be “cashed out,” except at the time of separation from Court service.

H. ATTORNEY LEAVE

All employees in the classification of 131C Civil Case Settlement Specialist are licensed attorneys, exempt from the Fair Labor Standards Act. Employees in this classification are often required to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week because of the nature of the incumbent’s work, including litigation deadlines and ethical and professional obligations. In light of this work requirement, each full-time employee in this classification shall be eligible to receive forty (40) hours of leave, to be known as “attorney leave,” on a fiscal year basis at the discretion of the Court Executive Officer. Further, not more than forty (40) hours of this leave may be carried into the next fiscal year. Any balance of this leave at the close of business on June 30th of each year that is between forty (40) and eighty (80) hours will be cashed out. All of the aforementioned relationships also include the same relationships for in-laws, including those of domestic partners. Such bereavement leave shall be authorized for up to three (3) regular workdays (24 hours) of the employee per occurrence. The employee shall give notice to his/her immediate supervisor as soon as possible and shall, if requested by the employee's supervisor, provide substantiation to support the request. If the death of a person as described herein requires the employee to travel over four hundred (400) miles one-way from his/her home, additional time off with pay shall be granted for two (2) additional days which shall be deducted from accrued sick leave, or at the employee's choice, other leave credits. Should additional time off be required for the occurrence, the Court Executive Officer may authorize the use of existing leave credits or authorized leave without pay. Employees may utilize leave credits other than sick leave for additional time off required in excess of the first three days as described herein or for the entire period required due to the death of other relatives not specifically listed herein or for a person residing in the immediate household of the employee at the time of death. Regularly scheduled part-time employees will be eligible for bereavement on a pro-rata basis, based upon the employee's fractional time base. Effective January 1, 2022, employees will be entitled to
