

THE SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO

Elimination of Bias Committee Presents:

Defending Diversity in Education

Please join us to hear esteemed scholar Professor Rachel Moran discuss developments in education litigation since the US Supreme Court struck-down the use of race in college admissions last year.

How can universities and law schools defend diversity in student admissions and faculty hiring? Has there been a chilling effect on discussions regarding diversity in the classroom? Come learn about the next chapter in diversity, equity and inclusion litigation.

Rachel Moran

Professor, Texas A&M
University School of Law
