San Francisco Superior Court Invites K–8 Students to Enter Student Art Contest

Theme is "Fun Places You Go in San Francisco." Winning and selected artwork will be displayed at the Civic Center Courthouse.

SAN FRANCISCO, CA – The San Francisco Superior Court is inviting San Francisco students in kindergarten through eighth grade to enter its Student Art Contest. This year's theme is "Fun Places You Go in San Francisco." Entries are due Friday, December 18, 2026.

Three winners will each receive $100, one in each grade group: K–2, 3–5, and 6–8. The winning pieces and other selected entries will be displayed on the 4th floor of the Civic Center Courthouse, 400 McAllister Street, beginning in the new year. The contest revives the Court's past practice of displaying student artwork in the courthouse.

"Families come to our courthouse at some of the most important moments in their lives," said Judge Roger C. Chan, Supervising Judge of the Unified Family Court. "Filling these halls with art from San Francisco's students makes the building more welcoming. We can't wait to see the places they love."

How to enter

Students who attend a school in San Francisco may submit one original, flat artwork no larger than 8½ by 11 inches. Each entry must include a completed entry and permission form signed by a parent or legal guardian. The entry form and contest rules are available here.

Mail entries to Staci Gray, Chief Operations Officer, Unified Family Court, Superior Court of California, County of San Francisco, 400 McAllister Street, Room 402, San Francisco, CA 94102. Schools submitting a group of entries can arrange a pickup.

To protect student privacy, the Court will not display or publish students' names or schools.

Questions may be directed to Staci Gray at sgray@sftc.org or 415-551-5910.
