California Penal Code Statutes that Constitute U Visa Criminal Activities October 27, 2017

Below is a non-exclusive list of the California Penal Code Sections that constitute criminal activities listed in the U Visa Statute Immigration and Nationality Act Section 101(a)(15)(U)(iii), 8 U.S.C. 1101(a)(15)(U)(iii). U Visa certifiers are directed on the U visa certification form I-918 supplement B Section to "select all that apply."¹ The I-918 supplement B instructions further request that the certifier --

"provide the dates of the criminal activity. If the criminal activity occurred over a period of time, provide a date on which at least one act constituting an element of qualifying criminal activity occurred. If multiple incidents occurred, provide the date of each incident investigated or prosecuted. List the statutory citations for the crimes in the space provided. If the crimes of which the petitioner is a victim are not listed, select the crimes that are similar to those crimes. You may provide a written explanation regarding how the crime of which the petitioner is a victim is similar to the listed crimes. Similar activity refers to criminal offenses in which the nature and elements of the offenses are substantially similar to the list of criminal activity at section 101(a)(15)(U)(iii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and found on the certification form itself."²

DHS explained the following when it issued the U visa regulations -

"the criminal activity listed is stated in broad terms. The rule's definition of "any similar activity" takes into account the wide variety of state criminal statutes in which criminal activity may be named differently than criminal activity found on the statutory list, while the nature and elements of both criminal activities are comparable. In addition, qualifying criminal activity may occur during the commission of non-qualifying criminal activity. For varying reasons, the perpetrator may not be charged or prosecuted for the qualifying criminal activity, but instead, for the nonqualifying criminal activity. For example, in the course of investigating Federal embezzlement and fraud charges, the investigators discover that the perpetrator is also abusing his wife and children, but because there are no applicable Federal domestic violence laws, he is charged only with nonqualifying Federal embezzlement and fraud crimes."³

Best practices for completing the U visa certification form are to check off all criminal activities detected that the victim has suffered that are U visa listed criminal activities or similar criminal activities. The following list provides certifiers with a quick reference list of the state criminal law section numbers for many of the U visa criminal activities.
